

Caleb Lee Travis Stanfield

October 16, 1989 - May 25, 2024

Caleb Lee Travis Stanfield, age 34, of the Morgan City community of Morgan County, Alabama passed away Saturday, May 25, 2024 in Baltimore, Maryland. Caleb was born October 16, 1989 in Huntsville, AL son of Travis Scott Stanfield and Kelly Lee Gatlin Stanfield. Caleb was a high school graduate and a strong Christian. He was a welder by trade who built and installed bill boards.

Caleb loved nature and being outdoors. His leisure time was usually spent either hunting, fishing, or going to church and witnessing to people. He was full of character, had the best sense of humor and was considered by family as the best uncle ever.

Family members Caleb leaves behind to cherish their precious memories include: son, Justice Stanfield; parents, Travis and Kelly Stanfield, sister, Rebekah Stanfield; niece, Kennedy Stanfield; aunt, Maurie Martin; and a host of family and friends.

Graveside services for Caleb will be 3:00 pm on Sunday, June 2, 2024 at Rescue Cemetery in Morgan County, AL. Brother Jimmy Smith and Brother Elbert Parson will officiate. Pallbearers escorting Caleb to his final resting place will be Kenny Parson, Greg Parker, Nick Maddox, Carter Blake, Brett King and Travis Stanfield. Honorary Pallbearers will be John Smith, Jerry Irvin and Richie Hardin.

In lieu of flowers please consider donation to either the Alabama Land Trust (landtrustnal.org) or Alabama Wildlife Federation (alabamawildlife.org).
