“ He was the best father anyone could ever imagine for their child. Joshua Jr. was his best friend and he taught him everything he could and talked to him about everything. It was like Jesus said in John chapter 10 "I and my father are one". After Emma was born, Josh and Sylvia would let me bring Joshua Jr.s other two little sisters over to play and always welcomed us like we were family. Josh had a big heart and didn't hold grudges but lived life to its fullest. He was very protective of his family.
