“ So sorry to hear of Sandy’s passing. I met Sandy when he was the manager of Shoneys in Decatur and I was a food inspector for the health department. I quickly found out that Sandy was a dedicated manager that was concerned about the safety of the food served at the restaurant. Over the years he and I developed a close friendship that I will always treasure. We hunted, frogged, gigged, bass fished in Florida. I called Sandy a few years ago, and we had a good conversation, planned on getting together again. Unfortunately, that didn’t happen. We tend to think we have plenty of time and put off for another day. Unfortunately, we didn’t get together. We tend to put off until tomorrow thinking that we have plenty of time. I really regret not meeting Sandy and eating lunch together and rehashing old times. Please accept my deepest condolences to your family. You have lost a person that I truly respected as friend and a great person. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
